

BPCC Student Worker Positions

All positions require Federal Work Study eligibility based on your financial aid package. If you have finished your FAFSA, (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), complete the BPCC Student Worker Application (SF-10D) and bring it to the Career Services Office, F-250.

FWS Student workers can work up to 20 hours a week while classes are in session. On-campus FWS Student Workers receive minimum wage, $7.25 an hour. Off-campus Community Services FWS Student Workers receive $8.50-$10.00 an hour and need skills to tutor and mentor area youth. Student workers are paid every two weeks.

Most on campus departments hire FWS student workers for duties such as answering phones, running errands around campus, filing, sorting, copying, shredding, faxing, entering data into a database, and assisting with special events and projects.

Providing other students, faculty, and staff with exceptional customer service is required.

All student workers need to be reliable and responsible.
